House—Routine business.

Washington, April 19.—Overwhelmingly passed by the senate late last night, the immigration bill and the controversial Japanese exclusion feature will be rushed through conference with the house in the next few days and sent to the White House, there to meet a problematic fate.

President Coolidge has given no indication as to whether he will veto it or not. Pressure has been put on him by administration leaders in the senate and those in charge of his campaign to approve it, and equally powerful arguments have been advanced to him by other advisors to veto it.

Those who would have him approve it point to the enormous majority by which the bill has been passed in both the house, by four to one, and in the senate ten to one. To veto it they say would be futile as it probably would be carried over the veto, and an inevitable breach opened between the president and his party in congress.

President Coolidge held lengthy conferences with Secretary of State Hughes and Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader in the senate, giving rise to the belief that developments in the Japanese immigration questions were impending.

Although all parties to the meeting were incommunicative, it was believed the Japanese question was discussed. In view of the fact that the immigration bill is not yet in the president's hands and consequently there is no cause for immediate action on the bill, thus it was assumed that some development concerning the Japanese protest was under consideration.

$1,500,000 TO FIGHT EPIDEMIC

Washington, April 19.—By unanimous vote, the house today appropriated $1,500,000 to combat the outbreak of hoof and mouth disease in California.

The appropriation made in a special joint resolution authorizing the secretary of agriculture to spend this amount in fighting the disease was in addition to one of $1,000,000 made for the same purpose in the recent deficiency bill.

Washington, April 19.—The house will take up the proposed child labor constitutional amendment next week, republican leader Longworth announced today. A vote probably will be reached before Friday, it was believed.

The amendment would empower congress to regulate or forbid the employment of all persons of less than 18 years of age.

Washington, April 19.—Passage of the soldier insurance bonus bill was given impetus today when the senate democrats split on the cash option feature. Just before the measure was taken up, the conference of democratic leaders broke up in a row over the cash provisions which minority members of the finance committee have proposed.

Democratic leader Robinson announced that the cash feature was a non-partisan question and democrats would support it or oppose it according to their individual views.

Ft. Wayne, Indiana, April 19.—Clara Kimball Young, film and stage actress, has suffered a sudden relapse and is in a serious condition, it was stated by attending physicians today.

Miss Young, who suffered an attack of appendicitis during a performance at a local theatre Tuesday night, will probably undergo an operation today or tomorrow.

All hope of her being able to resume her theatrical work for a number of weeks has been abandoned. Her manager cancelled her engagements and the supporting cast in the production in which she was starring is returning to New York today.

CHICAGO FIRE TAKES TOLL OF EIGHT FIREMEN

ONE CIVILIAN ALSO KILLED, 20
ARE INJURED, SOME FATALITY

ARSON SUSPECTED BY POLICE
IN FIRE GUTTING 5 STORY BUILDING

(By United Press)
Chicago, April 19.—Arson was suspected by police today in the fire which last night gutted a five-story building here, killing eight firemen, one civilian and injuring 20 others, some perhaps fatally.

Search of the ruins continues today, police and firemen fearing others still unaccounted for may have been trapped when a terrific explosion caused the walls to billow out and then collapse.

The explosion occurred on the second floor while firemen were scaling the building. The dead:

Captain John J. Brennan, 40; Michael Devine, 34; Lieutenant Frank Frosh, 37; Thomas Kelly, 51; Edward Kerstling, 38; Francis X. Leavay, 37; Samuel T. Warren, 40; Jeremiah Gallagher, 40; and William Dehr, 40, teamster.

The structure was known as the Curran building, located on Blue Island avenue on the south side. Fire, apparently insignificant, broke out last night. Within a few moments the fire was raging through the entire structure. Scores of pieces of fire apparatus were brought to the scene.

Firemen were on the upper floor, others were on the ground floor and still others were perched on ladders leaned against the wall when a water tower rearing its head a few feet from the building, went without a second of warning. A terrific blast shook the buildings, the wall bulged and then caved to the ground. The roof and upper floors crashed through to the basement, carrying the tortured living freight. Shrieks of agony pierced the gale like a roar of the flames, yells intermingling with the falling brick, concrete, steel and timbers.

Scenes of unsurpassed heroism followed. Policemen and firemen undaunted by the leaping flames and falling debris rushed into the roaring furnace.

Most of those on the injured list were dragged from the flames by rescuers and those alive owe their lives to the prompt and courageous work of rescuers.

Doctors, internes and nurses summoned hastily, administered first aid in the glare of the fire.

A priest, Father E. A. Jones, of the Holy Family church, walked calmly through the excitement delivering the last sacrament to the dying.

Patrolman Thomas Kelly, Jr., giving assistance wherever needed, came on one little group and broke through to see what he could, and found his father—dead—in the center.

Lieutenant John Mannisky and John Courtney, of a fire insurance company, had a miraculous escape from death. They were on the third floor when the explosion occurred. They rode the flying wall to the street, and while rendered unconscious, they were not badly hurt.

Police were told that owners of the Curran building had aroused the enmity of several persons by planning to rent the upper floor of the structure to negroes. Police also were told that several persons, acting suspiciously, had been seen near the building just before the fire.

Separate investigations are under way by police, the fire marshal and the coroner. Police today took into custody Samuel Moore, Leo Unell and Samuel Palinski in connection with their investigation of arson. Moore and Unell, proprietors of the Moore-Unell Novelty company, occupants of the structure, took out $32,000 fire insurance several days ago, police said.

Palinski, police said, held the policy in lieu of a mortgage on the company's stock. Adolph Friedman, proprietor of another shop in the building, told police that an hour and a half before the fire broke out Moore asked him if all the tenants were out of the building.

(By United Press)
Washington, April 19.—Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals was vigorously attacked by Francis R. Weller, consulting engineer for Elton R. Hooker, member of the Hooker-White-Atterbury group, bidding for the project before the senate agriculture committee today.

"The Ford offer," Weller declared, is indefensible from any standpoint. The fact that it violates the federal policy regarding water power developments would cause the government to break faith with every other company that has undertaken power development under the water power act. On this act practically the unanimous sentiment of all engineers in this country is adverse to the Ford proposal.

Adolph Friedman, proprietor of another shop in the building, told police that an hour and a half before the fire broke out Moore asked him if all the tenants were out of the building.

Fire at 9:30 o'clock this morning burned the 3-story brick Imperial block of the O'Brien Mercantile Co. with all its contents, nothing being saved by either the business houses with quarters there and the tenants in the flats in the two stories above.

For a time the new Brainerd State bank building across the street and the O'Brien block which joins the Imperial block on the east, were in grave danger. The flames were of such intense heat that the windows in the Penney store and in the Citizens State bank building were broken. The frame house occupied by Mrs. William Johnson, just south of the doomed building was on fire several times.

How the Fire Started
The flames started in the basement, just how, no one seems to know. They were first discovered by B. C. McNamara, whose undertaking establishment was located in the building. Mr. McNamara had just returned from the barber shop and was standing in the front of his store when he noticed smoke coming up through the floor. A moment later the smoke broke out in such heavy quantities that he was forced to leave without saving any of his stock.

No Time to Close Safe
The Markowitz brothers, who had a clothing store in the corner of the Imperial block, did not have time to close their safe, so quickly was the fire upon them. Tenants in the flats above barely escaped with their lives.

The Imperial block was occupied on the ground floor by the Plymouth Clothing Company, B. C. McNamara, undertaker. In the basement Louis Broman conducted a tailor shop. The third floors were Harold Canfield, R. tenants who lived on the second and G. Jenkins, Mrs. Bertha Theviot, V. H. Reiff, Gust Malstrom, Jerome St. Cyr, Andrew Smraker, Miss Marie Lawrence, C. P. Forsberg, B. E. Dunham, Mrs. D. Sheridan, and R. B. Hamilton. Herbert Peterson had just moved out of the building a week ago.

Value of Block
The Imperial block was owned by the O'Brien Mercantile Co., and was one of the older buildings of the modern type. It was erected by W. D. McKay who sold it afterward to its present owners for $33,000. It is said that it could not be replaced today for more than twice that amount, so that a $65,000 valuation is a very conservative estimate. It is reported that $30,000 insurance was carried upon the building.

Plymouth Clothing Co.
The Plymouth Clothing stock was valued at $40,000 said Max Markowitz, one of the proprietors, upon which about $25,000 insurance was carried. Much new spring stock had

Washington, April 19.—Senator Wheeler, Montana, today appeared before U. S. Commissioner MacDonald and gave his personal bond of $10,000 for his appearance when his trial on a charge of illegally accepting a retainer as a United States senator is called in Great Falls, Mont.

Wheeler was not formally arrested. He was notified that a warrant issued by the federal authorities in Montana had arrived in Washington, and he promptly presented himself to the commissioner.

just arrived, and had only been unpacked two days. The winter stock had just been stored away in the basement.

B. C. McNamara states that his stock of undertaking supplies and chinaware would invoice at least $10,000. He carried $7,000 insurance.

It could not be learned what loss the tenants in the flats sustained. No one had time to save any of their belongings. Most of them carried insurance.

Basement Recently Inspected
Fire Chief H. McGinn states that in company with Con O'Brien he made an inspection of the basement of the Imperial block on Friday evening, and found it in excellent shape. It had just been cleaned up by order of the fire chief, an old furnace taken out and other improvements made from a fire risk standpoint. How the flames could break out in such a basement is a mystery to the fire department.

Southampton, England, April 19.—Fire broke out on the giant American liner Leviathan in port here late today.

First reports said the flames were confined to the bridge and upper decks.

The fire lasted only about thirty minutes, officers of the ship said, and damage by water used in extinguishing the flames was not excessive.

A majority of the passengers aboard the great liner had landed when the fire was discovered.

New York, April 19.—The Leviathan arrived in Southampton at 10:15 a. m. today according to a radio to the United States shipping board which learned of the fire from the United Press. It was the blue liner's first voyage after being overhauled in Boston.

The ship left New York last Saturday and is scheduled to leave Southampton on the return trip April 22. Shipping board officials hoped the return sailing would not have to be delayed because of the fire.

Twelve families, household effects, estimated loss $10,000.

Fire at 9:30 o'clock this morning burned the 3-story brick Imperial block of the O'Brien Mercantile Co. with all its contents, nothing being saved by either the business houses with quarters there and the tenants in the flats in the two stories above.

For a time the new Brainerd State bank building across the street and the O'Brien block which joins the Imperial block on the east, were in grave danger. The flames were of such intense heat that the windows in the Penney store and in the Citizens State bank building were broken. The frame house occupied by Mrs. William Johnson, just south of the doomed building was on fire several times.

How the Fire Started
The flames started in the basement, just how, no one seems to know. They were first discovered by B. C. McNamara, whose undertaking establishment was located in the building. Mr. McNamara had just returned from the barber shop and was standing in the front of his store when he noticed smoke coming up through the floor. A moment later the smoke broke out in such heavy quantities that he was forced to leave without saving any of his stock.

No Time to Close Safe
The Markowitz brothers, who had a clothing store in the corner of the Imperial block, did not have time to close their safe, so quickly was the fire upon them. Tenants in the flats above barely escaped with their lives.

The Imperial block was occupied on the ground floor by the Plymouth Clothing Company, B. C. McNamara, undertaker. In the basement Louis Broman conducted a tailor shop. The third floor was Harold Canfield, R. tenants who lived on the second and G. Jenkins, Mrs. Bertha Theviot, V. H. Reyff, Gust Malstrom, Jerome St. Cyr, Andrew Smraker, Miss Marie Lawrence, C. P. Forsberg, B. E. Dunham, Mrs. D. Sheridan, and R. B. Hamilton. Herbert Peterson had just moved out of the building a week ago.

Value of Block
The Imperial block was owned by the O'Brien Mercantile Co., and was one of the older buildings of the modern type. It was erected by W. D. McKay who sold it afterward to its present owners for $33,000. It is said that it could not be replaced today for more than twice that amount, so that a $65,000 valuation is a very conservative estimate. It is reported that $30,000 insurance was carried upon the building.

Plymouth Clothing Co.
The Plymouth Clothing stock was valued at $40,000 said Max Markowitz, one of the proprietors, upon which about $25,000 insurance was carried. Much new spring stock had

(By United Press)
Dutch Harbor, Alaska, April 19.—Intense excitement prevails among Unalaskan natives today as they watched the skies for the coming of the American round the world fliers.

The fliers expect to reach here today. Major Martin's arrival is expected later.

Their arrival will give 95 per cent of the inhabitants of Unalaska their first view of an airplane.

Favorable weather conditions were reported along the route of the fliers. The cutter Algonquin was expected to reach Kanakak where Major Martin's plane is being repaired today.

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 19.—Ear muffs and winter coats will be the order in this section Easter Sunday.

Snow and rain today, colder tonight and continued cloudy was the weatherman's promise. Gaudy raiment and new attire, if any, will be protected by rainsticks tomorrow.

SEN. WHEELER NOT FORMALLY ARRESTED

Washington, April 19.—Senator Wheeler, Montana, today appeared before U. S. Commissioner MacDonald and gave his personal bond of $1,000 for his appearance when his trial on a charge of illegally accepting a retainer as a United States senator is called in Great Falls, Mont.

Wheeler was not formally arrested. He was notified that a warrant issued by the federal authorities in Montana had arrived in Washington, and he promptly presented himself to the commissioner.

just arrived, and had only been unpacked two days. The winter stock had just been stored away in the basement.

B. C. McNamara states that his stock of undertaking supplies and chinaware would invoice at least $10,000. He carried $7,000 insurance.

It could not be learned what loss the tenants in the flats sustained. No one had time to save any of their belongings. Most of them carried insurance.

Basement Recently Inspected
Fire Chief H. McGinn states that in company with Con O'Brien he made an inspection of the basement of the Imperial block on Friday evening, and found it in excellent shape. It had just been cleaned up by order of the fire chief, an old furnace taken out and other improvements made from a fire risk standpoint. How the flames could break out in such a basement is a mystery to the fire department.

OVERHAULED IN BOSTON
SHIPYARDS

(By United Press)
Southampton, England, April 19.—Fire broke out on the giant American liner Leviathan in port here late today.

First reports said the flames were confined to the bridge and upper decks.

The fire lasted only about thirty minutes, officers of the ship said, and damage by water used in extinguishing the flames was not excessive.

A majority of the passengers aboard the great liner had landed when the fire was discovered.

SHIPPING BOARD GET RADIO MESSAGE

New York, April 19.—The Leviathan arrived in Southampton at 10:15 a. m. today according to a radio to the United States shipping board which learned of the fire from the United Press. It was the blue liner's first voyage after being overhauled in Boston.

The ship left New York last Saturday and is scheduled to leave Southampton on the return trip April 22. Shipping board officials hoped the return sailing would not have to be delayed because of the fire.

QUICKLY FOUND BY THE DISPATCH

READERS of the Brainerd Dispatch a few days ago noticed the appeal made to find one George H. Smith, supposed to have been a resident of Brainerd. The Minneapolis Tax Bureau had information of value for Smith or his heirs.

Within two hours after the Dispatch was printed, Fred Sargent telephoned A. L. Hoffman of the Brainerd Business Men's association the addresses of Smith and his family.

THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

THE Boy Scout movement was at a low ebb in Bemidji and the Duluth Herald recently carried this comment: "The Boy Scout movement is to be revived in Bemidji," surprisingly reports the Sentinel. The surprise is that so notoriously live and progressive a town as Bemidji should allow a splendid organization like the Boy Scouts to get to the point where it needs reviving.

JAPAN feels hurt because this country does not give its citizens the same rights under immigration laws as extended to other nations. The Japanese do not seem to fit in with our civilization, says the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press, and in that case, this country certainly has the right of self protection and preservation.

It was to be a great clash when Holtzhauser and Tincup were slated to clash in duel. METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE

Department of Methodist Church Now Has Membership of Almost Forty

The young people's department of the Methodist church has been very active during the past winter season.

Through the conscientious efforts of the president of the department and the various members of the class, they have succeeded in working up a membership of almost forty. It is the aim and desire of the department to secure an attendance of fifty young people at its Sunday service on Easter Sunday, the program beginning at twelve o'clock.

It will require the assistance of each member of the department to reach this quota, but the members are certain that their goal will be easily reached.

Visitors are always welcome at these services, and all who have no other Sunday school affiliations are urged to be present.

QUICKLY FOUND BY THE DISPATCH

READERS of the Brainerd Dispatch a few days ago noticed the appeal made to find one George H. Smith, supposed to have been a resident of Brainerd. The Minneapolis Tax Bureau had information of value for Smith or his heirs.

Within two hours after the Dispatch was printed, Fred Sargent telephoned A. L. Hoffman of the Brainerd Business Men's association the addresses of Smith and his family.

THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

THE Boy Scout movement was at a low ebb in Bemidji and the Duluth Herald recently carried this comment: "The Boy Scout movement is to be revived in Bemidji," surprisingly reports the Sentinel. The surprise is that so notoriously live and progressive a town as Bemidji should allow a splendid organization like the Boy Scouts to get to the point where it needs reviving.

JAPAN feels hurt because this country does not give its citizens the same rights under immigration laws as extended to other nations. The Japanese do not seem to fit in with our civilization, says the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press, and in that case, this country certainly has the right of self protection and preservation.

It was to be a great clash when Holtzhauser and Tincup were slated to clash in duel. There is to be no killing or attempted murder, these gentlemen being rival flingers of the Louisville and St. Paul nines. It is said Tincup holds a world of stuff and Holtzhauser is the equal of any pitcher in the Hickey loop.

St. CLOUD papers, like Brainerd, have entered the "Buy in Your Home Town" movement and are supporting it vigorously. Merchants are showing their appreciation by increasing advertising allowances.

THE St. Paul Daily News featured a "Peep in Advance at Beach Styles," revealing five pretty flappers seated on the sands. Two-thirds of the anatomy exposed was, of course, legs, which are the same as Eve had.

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE
Department of Methodist Church Now Has Membership of Almost Forty
The young people's department of the Methodist church has been very active during the past winter season.
Through the conscientious efforts of the president of the department and the various members of the class, they have succeeded in working up a membership of almost forty. It is the aim and desire of the department to secure an attendance of fifty young people at its Sunday service on Easter Sunday, the program beginning at twelve o'clock.
It will require the assistance of each member of the department to reach this quota, but the members are certain that their goal will be easily reached.
Visitors are always welcome at these services, and all who have no other Sunday school affiliations are urged to be present.

County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy Gives Out Road Information

STATE ROAD NO. 1, FAIR SHAPE

No. 3 Soft in Places, No. 4 Offers Detour Around Sink Hole, No. 5 Newly Surfaced

Many will be interested in the condition of the roads throughout the county, before planning tours for Easter Sunday, and County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy gives out the following information on roads under his supervision:

State Road No. 1. (13th street to the Morrison county line) This road is one of the best graded in the county and is reported as being good its entire length. Morrison county is to build a road to connect No. 1 with Little Falls this summer.

State Road No. 2. (Dewey highway through southern tier of townships) This road is in fair shape considering the weather conditions and the fact that it has only had maintenance since the county took it over.

State Road No. 3. (Brainerd, Merrifield, Cross Lake, Emily) Brainerd to Merrifield, good, Merrifield to Cross Lake, soft in places, otherwise good, Cross Lake to Emily, good.

State Road No. 4. (Crosby, Emily and north to Cass county line) Crosby north to Mississippi river bridge, fair, road is very winding, one sink hole four miles north of Crosby, take detour. This hole is being attended to and the road will be in good shape next week. River bridge to Emily, good. Emily to county line, fair.

State Road No. 5. (Deerwood, Bay Lake and south) Deerwood to Bay Lake road is newly surfaced and is said to be in very good condition. Bay Lake south motorists can take new road built last year, skirting the lake. This is in good shape and offers tourists one of the most scenic drives in the county. The road connects with Trunk Highway No. 18 near the Workman corner.

White lines throughout the county are in good shape, except No. 3 in Nokay lake township. Four miles of this road, from the Long lake narrows, south, is soft and muddy in many places.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our beloved husband and daddy, Arthur E. Burke, who entered into rest one sad year ago today, April 19, 1923.

He bid no one a last fare well. He said good bye to none.

His loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew that he was gone.

We miss thy kind and willing hands. Thy fond and earnest care.

Our home is sad without thee. For we miss you every where.

Rest in peace dear Arthur. For your work on earth is done.

The pining was painful, but God knows best.

He is gone, but not forgotten. The one we loved so well.

Oh, Daddy how we miss you. No words can ever tell.

You have gone where those who love you.

Will meet you one by one. Sadly missed by his loved wife and little son.

Mrs. A. E. Burke.

FIRE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hamilton, third floor tenants, were among those having narrow escapes. Mr. Hamilton is a night train dispatcher and had just retired when his wife yelled, "Fire." He jumped into what clothes were handy, and with his wife leaped to the window. Providentially, ladders had just been placed in position and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton scaled them safely. Smoke eddied and swirled about them and nearly choked them.

Firemen said considerable difficulty was experienced in saving one woman from the top floor.

Oscar Hauggorde, chief engineer of the Wise buildings, saw the fire at the start and with a Northwestern telephone company man, assisted to get five women and one small boy down the ladders. Mr. Hauggorde says he is sure that every one was taken from the third floor. Those rescued were huddled near windows and the fire escape on South Seventh street. Ladders of the Gruenhagen Co., and the fire department were used.

The water and light board carried 135 pounds pressure at the water station. It was noticed that the water was off two or three times for a moment, said Secretary W. D. McKay. This was due, said he, to the circuit breakers at the Minnesota Power & Light station not being able to hold the three city pumps.

Carl Jacobson just two days ago removed his family from the Imperial block to another location. He had occupied a flat on the second floor, near the northwest corner of the building.

W. S. Orne reports that he ran up the steps of the building, Laurel street entrance, and in two trips assisted several women to the street. On the last run to safety, he said, a chance stream of water from fire hose clipped them.

At 10:05 A. M. there was a loud explosion and it is thought the boiler of the steam heating plant blew up.

At 10:20 A. M. floors crashed in and fell to the basement. The fire was raging with a fierce heat and firemen also directed hose on the O'Brien two-story brick block located east of the Imperial block.

About 10:25 A. M. two-thirds of the walls fell in, and providentially not a brick damaged the fire hose.

Mrs. B. E. Dunham had only time to put on her fur coat and with a towel over her head ran through the smoke to the main stairway on Laurel. Exit on the rear stairway was cut off. She assisted to spread the fire alarm to other tenants, knocking at the doors of neighbors and shouting a warning.

The N. P. fire car, with 10,000 gallons of water, was brought down from the shops and its contents used in fighting the flames. A minor repair had to be made at the pumping station which cut down the water pressure for a few minutes.

Roy Zierke is said to have been the hero of the hour, when he mounted a ladder and carried one of the lady tenants down from the third story of the burning building.

Gust Elling, twelve-year old son of H. W. Elling of 411 Farrar St., N. E., was injured by falling brick, when firemen pulled down a part of the wall on Laurel street after the fire. The boy was taken to Dr. Joseph Nicholson who dressed a wound in his leg about two inches long and half an inch deep.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Jenkins was in the bath tub when the fire broke out, and had only time to don a part of her clothing and escape. Her mother had no time to put on her own slippers or shoes.

James Crust, one of the firemen, working from the roof of the Johnson residence just south of the Imperial block, was nearly thrown to the ground from the force of the explosion which blew out the south end of the burning building.

When You Buy a De Forest You Have All There Is!

YOU can spend twice and three times as much for a radio receiving set and get no more than you get with a De Forest Reflex Radiophone at $150.

You can buy more tubes, a larger cabinet, more elaborate wiring. You will probably also buy the necessity for using an outdoor aerial and a ground. You will pay much more for tubes and battery upkeep.

But if you are buying the most radio miles, the clearest reception of broadcasting, the greatest number of stations, the easiest and surest operation—buy a De Forest and you have all there is.

The way to prove its supremacy is to operate a De Forest D-10 Radiophone in the same room with any other set made—no matter what its price—and select the one that works best for you.

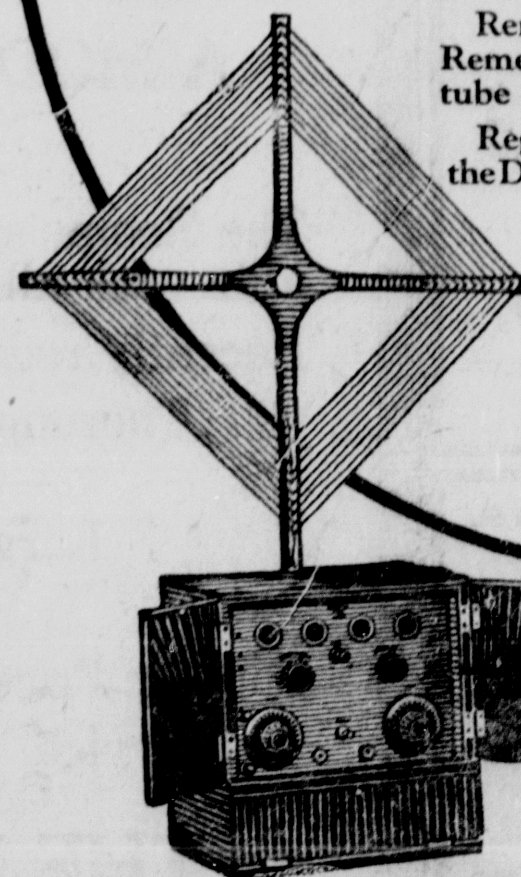

Forget the long names and the trick circuits. Forget the multiplicity of tubes. Buy on performance.

Remember that De Forest invented broadcasting. Remember that De Forest invented the vacuum tube which makes all present-day radio possible.

Regardless of price there is no better set made than the De Forest Reflex Radiophone. Prove it to yourself.

Carl Jacobson just two days ago removed his family from the Imperial block to another location. He had occupied a flat on the second floor, near the northwest corner of the building.

W. S. Orne reports that he ran up the steps of the building, Laurel street entrance, and in two trips assisted several women to the street. On the last run to safety, he said, a chance stream of water from fire hose clipped them.

At 10:05 A. M. there was a loud explosion and it is thought the boiler of the steam heating plant blew up.

At 10:20 A. M. floors crashed in and fell to the basement. The fire was raging with a fierce heat and firemen also directed hose on the O'Brien two-story brick block located east of the Imperial block.

About 10:25 A. M. two-thirds of the walls fell in, and providentially not a brick damaged the fire hose.

Mrs. B. E. Dunham had only time to put on her fur coat and with a towel over her head ran through the smoke to the main stairway on Laurel. Exit on the rear stairway was cut off. She assisted to spread the fire alarm to other tenants, knocking at the doors of neighbors and shouting a warning.

The N. P. fire car, with 10,000 gallons of water, was brought down from the shops and its contents used in fighting the flames. A minor repair had to be made at the pumping station which cut down the water pressure for a few minutes.

Roy Zierke is said to have been the hero of the hour, when he mounted a ladder and carried one of the lady tenants down from the third story of the burning building.

Gust Elling, twelve-year old son of H. W. Elling of 411 Farrar St., N. E., was injured by falling brick, when firemen pulled down a part of the wall on Laurel street after the fire. The boy was taken to Dr. Joseph Nicholson who dressed a wound in his leg about two inches long and half an inch deep.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Jenkins was in the bath tub when the fire broke out, and had only time to don a part of her clothing and escape. Her mother had no time to put on her own slippers or shoes.

James Crust, one of the firemen, working from the roof of the Johnson residence just south of the Imperial block, was nearly thrown to the ground from the force of the explosion which blew out the south end of the burning building.

Strength Brings Confidence— Confidence Brings Strength

In banking, strength and confidence go hand in hand. A bank cannot gain the confidence of the public without showing strength, and its strength cannot increase without the confidence of the public.

People of Brainerd and vicinity know that the Citizens State Bank is strong—and by their continued confidence they are year by year helping this bank to gain still greater strength.

We invite and appreciate your confidence.

The cost of painting your home can not be de- termined by the price per gallon of paint. Some paints will cover twice the surface that other paints will.

The great covering capacity of Blood's Durable prepared paint is the reason for its ever increasing popularity with Brainerd people and if you'll just let us explain to you the difference between good and cheap paints, you will readily see why you can use high grade paint such as Blood's at a smaller cost per job.

When You Buy a De Forest You Have All There Is!

YOU can spend twice and three times as much for a radio receiving set and get no more than you get with a De Forest Reflex Radiophone at $150.

You can buy more tubes, a larger cabinet, more elaborate wiring. You will probably also buy the necessity for using an outdoor aerial and a ground. You will pay much more for tubes and battery upkeep.

But if you are buying the most radio miles, the clearest reception of broadcasting, the greatest number of stations, the easiest and surest operation—buy a De Forest and you have all there is.

The way to prove its supremacy is to operate a De Forest D-10 Radiophone in the same room with any other set made—no matter what its price—and select the one that works best for you.

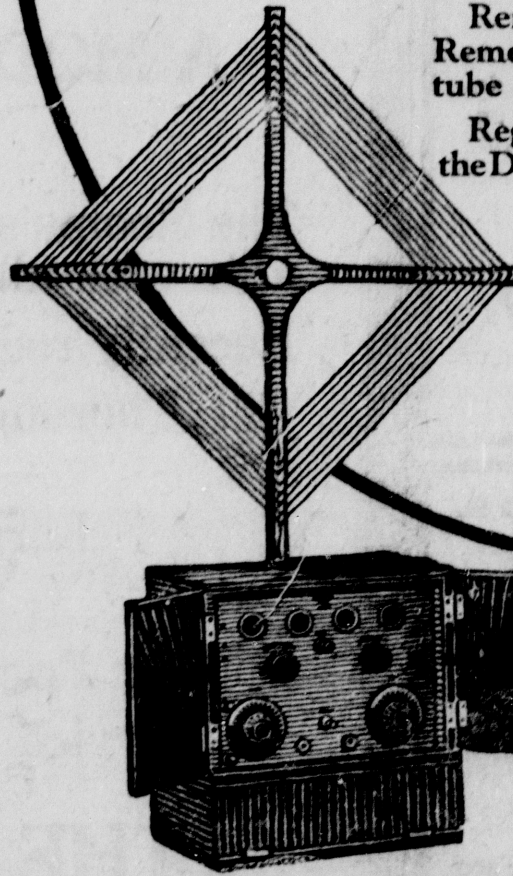

Forget the long names and the trick circuits. Forget the multiplicity of tubes. Buy on performance.

Remember that De Forest invented broadcasting. Remember that De Forest invented the vacuum tube which makes all present-day radio possible.

Regardless of price there is no better set made than the De Forest Reflex Radiophone. Prove it to yourself.
